

IT Analyst/Programmer

Duties: Design, develop, extend and maintain our web based applications, including new features, enhancements and bug fixes. Work with all departments to gather requirements, product design, perform content management and handle end to end product management in the web portal. Participate in full software development life cycle, incorporate unit testing into development process. Integrate new features and enhancements in existing software and performance tuning for existing database. Oversee and maintain content management systems, manage site initiatives, features & functionality. Rights permission management, Oracle patch management, server configuration management.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in Information Science or related and two years' experience in Database Management, Reports designing, Visual Basic, development using languages such as C#.Net, ASP.Net, Secure Oracle/SQL/Pervasive PSQL configurations and performance tuning; content management, XML and web development using .Net/VB. Experience in relational databases (Oracle/SQL/Pervasive PSQL) and their impact on application performance. Knowledge of backups, restores, recovery models, database shrink operations, data warehousing strategies, Global Shop Software and clustering.

Location: Procedyne Corp., 11 Industrial Dr., New Brunswick, NJ 08901.